

PRESENCE-DRIVEN DONKEYS

by JEFF YUEN

UPDATED EDITION: WITH DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Bringing Christ to the Streets

God is looking for donkeys. As one carried His Son into Jerusalem, so must we carry Him into the lives of those around us.

Jeff Yuen has brought Christ into the streets for many years, with amazing and miraculous results. This book is not a fanciful claim of miraculous happenings; it is an honest account of someone who takes God at His Word. He brings Christian witness to places where most fear to tread—sleazy pubs, sordid back lanes, and red light districts—but where the need for the Lord's presence is greatest. He now shares his testimonies, and challenges you to join the mighty work of God outside the walls of the church. He also shows you ways we can see the world and its everyday situations as pulpits to bring God's transforming power into the lives of others.

About the Author

Jeff Yuen is an evangelist and prophetic minister. He and his wife were missionaries in Thailand for several years, but now reside in Singapore with their family.

Jeff focuses on training up revivalists to change the nations. He has taught in several Bible schools, churches and other Christian groups here and in Asia. He currently heads a church called Soakability, and is still leading small teams out on to the streets to pray for the sick and share the news of salvation.
